BULLDOG

To a very sweet boy whom I like alot and think alot of. Lots of luck
in the future
you know.
1967

To a very sweet boy whom I know. Lots of luck in the future,
Kathy Lee

Love,
Debbie

To a very sweet
boy. One of the nicest
boys in the eighth grade.
Stay as sweet and as nice as you are, and you will go far in the future.
Love,
Linda

To a boy whom I have had alot
of fun with. You are very sweet and cute. I hope you have luck in the future.
Love,
Linda

To you,
I hope you & the Greatest and sweetest boy in 8th. Keep your nice manners and you will go far. Love, Betty Greene

To a very nice nut
and pal and a nice body
(I guess)
I have run out of bad words so some will be good. Love,
nice boy.

To a sweet
real sweet
boy whom I haven't known
long (only this year)
but it has been a blast with you. I hope you stay here
a long time and remain
as happy as you are.
Sincerely yours

To a very sweet sweet and cute boy, who I have enjoyed knowing very much.
I wish you all the luck
in the world.

Yea!! Love,
Sr. '67 Joyce

To a real nice boy
that everyone thinks alot
of. Stay the way you are and you'll go far.

Nancy

To a boy who I don't think much of (Ha Ha). all
the luck to you.

Jerry

To Joe!
All my nice love.
I wish you lots of
luck with the girls.
I didn't know you
were well at the first as school and wasn't sure if you were the thing or not. But now (I'm sure you
(I'm kidding) here!
Good luck.
James Holloway

To Joe,
I don't know you
very well, but you are like a real thing. I hope you stay here
a long time.
Sincerely yours
Loring

To a real good boy who I hope will go a long way in the future.
 You just stay as you are and you will be very good in anything you try to do. When you get a little bigger don't get all the pretty girls, save a few for me (OK?).
 Lots of Luck in the future.

FOREWORD

"The Time of Our Lives"--high school. The year 1963 was a full one at HHS. In this book, the things that made that year are depicted: honors, organizations, athletics, and students. The purpose of the 1963 Bulldog is to record all these activities of HHS so that someday you can lift the cover of this book and think--"The Time of Our Lives"

FHA -- Peter Peter Pumpkin Eater

Pep Club -- Queen's Float

Seventh Grade--Three Little Pigs
Second Place

A parade at 3:45 on Friday afternoon started Homecoming festivities with each class and club entering a float. Theme of the parade was "Fantasy Land". Sophomores and Freshmen tied for first place among the classes. Kay's Style Shop won in the business division.

In the evening, the Bulldogs' edging of conference for Ringling, 16-14, was highlighted by the coronation of Miss Nelda Studler as Football Queen. Queen Nelda, escorted by Tom Cypert, was crowned by honorary captain Gary Key. Attendants were Sandra Martin, Linda Shrader, and Bobbie Acox. Fower girl was Debbie Barnes and crown bearer was Steven Worsham.

NATIONAL HONOR SOCIETY

SITTING LEFT TO RIGHT: Linda Taylor, Mary Karns, Mrs. Peckering, Mary Ann Karns, Sandra Martin, and Debbie Butler. STANDING LEFT TO RIGHT: Maria R. Cotton, Betty Green, Mrs. Hanna, Philip Armstrong, Percy Gandy and Janet Key.

The goal of the National Honor Society is to stimulate, among students a regard for scholarship, constructive leadership, purposeful service, and worthy character.

Any high school student whose grade average for the last semester of one year and the first semester of the next year and with no grade lower than "C" is automatically nominated. From these nominees, the faculty chooses members on the other three points.

This year's N H S has been more active than previous chapters. Sandra Martin, Secretary, Mary Ann Karns, President and Mrs. Hanna Adviser, attended the fourth annual state convention at Duncan.

During second semester, new members will be inducted in an impressive candlelights ceremony.

Our 4-H Club has been very active this year. Alan Eck, Mark Eck, and Jerri Greene were honored at the Achievement Banquet in December. Each 4-H member who went to the Speech Contest this year brought back blue and red ribbons. We participated in the Demonstration Program in January. We were represented by Mark Eck in the County Junior Livestock Show. Our club did very well in the Dress Revues in March. Many of the members have read a lot of books for the year. We hope to have even a better year next year and in the years to follow.

HIGH SCHOOL CHORUS

The High School Chorus is a group of students who are interested in music and singing. They are led by their teacher, Mrs. [Name], and they perform at various school events and competitions. The chorus is a great way for students to develop their musical skills and to work together as a team. They have been successful in many competitions and have received many awards for their performances. The chorus is a proud member of the school and we are proud of the students who are part of it.
